Fourth Sunday of Lent – 14 March 2021

“The blind man went off and washed himself,
and came away with his sight restored.”

John 9, 7

LENT 2021

LENT COURSE

This has been cancelled in Fr Patrick's absence.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS DURING LENT

There are no Stations for the rest of Lent.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY MORNING MASSES

Unfortunately, there will not be an open Mass on Fridays or Saturdays for the remainder of Lent.

OSCOTT MEMORIAL FOR FR GILES

The Parish has been contacted by the Student body of Oscott College where Canon Giles Goward was Rector for a short six months.

They are anxious to have a plaque placed in the chapel in his honour and thought to purchase a set of Mass vestments in his honour. They felt parishioners here might like to contribute to this memorial Fund.

Any donations can be sent to: Senior Student, St. Mary's College Oscott, Chester Road, SUTTON COLDFIELD B73 5AA.

HOLY WEEK / EASTER BOOKINGS

Thankfully, this year we are able to celebrate in church but we will have to do some things differently to stay safe and be COVID secure. Bookings will go live on Eventbrite 9am on Monday 22nd March.

Liturgies available to book for:

- Palm Sunday - 27th/28th March, usual Sunday Mass times
- Holy Thursday, Mass of the Last Supper - 1st April @ 19.30
- Stations - 2nd April, 12 noon
- Good Friday - 2nd April @ 3pm
- Easter Vigil - 3rd April @ 21.00
- Easter Sunday - 4th April @ 10am

Please be considerate when booking eg if you have been to the Easter Vigil Mass you might consider leaving room for somebody else on Easter Sunday morning.

STATIONS ON GOOD FRIDAY

We are unlikely to be able to accommodate everybody who wants to come to the Good Friday service at 3pm. If you are lucky enough to have a seat for the Good Friday liturgy, please leave the Stations at noon for somebody who did not get a seat for 3pm.

HAPPY MOTHERING SUNDAY

May all the mothers and families in the parish be blessed in a special way this weekend.

Fourth Sunday of Lent (Year B – Mark):

Fr. Antony Kadavil reflects and comments on the readings at Mass for the fourth Sunday in Lent. He says that today's readings both remind us that it is God who gives us proper vision in body as well as in soul and instructs us that we should be constantly on our guard against spiritual blindness.

By describing the anointing of David as the second King of Israel, the first reading, taken from the First Book of Samuel, illustrates how blind we are in our judgments and how much we need God's help.

In today's Responsorial Psalm, (Ps 23), we celebrate the care of God, our Good Shepherd, hearing, "even though I walk in the dark valley, I fear no evil; for You are at my side with Your rod and Your staff that give me courage."

In the second reading, Paul reminds the Ephesians of their new responsibility as children of light: "You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of the light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth."

Jesus' giving of sight to a blind man, reported in today's Gospel, teaches us the necessity of opening the eyes of our mind by Faith and warns us that those who assume they see the truth are often blind, while those who acknowledge their blindness are given clear vision. In this episode, the most unlikely person, namely the beggar born blind, receives the light of Faith in Jesus, while the religion-oriented, law-educated Pharisees remain spiritually blind. "There are none so blind, as those who will not see." To live as a Christian is to see, to have clear vision about God, about ourselves and about others. Today's Gospel reminds us that we are to live as children of the light, seeking what is good and right and true. Our Lenten prayers and sacrifices should serve to heal our blindness so that we can look at others, see them as children of God and love them as our own brothers and sisters saved by the death and Resurrection of Jesus.
